

THE FAMILY LIAISON OFFICE

The Family Liaison Office presents the Foreign Service Parenting Information Series: Session 7

I've Brought My Foreign Service Kid Home – Now What?!

Reentry to the United States may be one of the hardest moves a Foreign Service family can make. Questions of fitting in, school transitions, identity as a Third Culture Kid, and adjustment are but a few of the issues that children face. Come and share information with other parents in the same situation, or come if you have some sage advice to share!

- WHAT: Presentation featuring an overview of Third Culture Kid issues, focusing on transitions
Round Table Discussion to follow to include:
Dr. Samuel Thielman, Director of Mental Health Services
Stanley Piotroski, Director of Employee Consultation Service
Rebecca Grappo, Education and Youth Officer, Family Liaison Office
And YOU, the parents!
- FOR: Foreign Service family members in the Washington D.C. area
- WHEN: Wednesday, September 8, 2004
12:45 p.m. – 1:45 p.m.
- WHERE: Room 1205, Harry S Truman Building (Main State)

For more information, contact (202) 647-1076 or email FLOAskEducation@state.gov.

Please share this meeting date with other Foreign Service families the Washington D.C. Area.